PORTRAITS WITH Santa!

To help create an enjoyable and memorable encounter, studio owner Tracie Maglosky suggests that parents have their kids think about the top three things on their holiday wish list. "Santa is a great conversationalist, but this will give the children something to talk about," she says. Mom and dad will take home a digital copy of the photo with a release to print as many additional copies as they choose.

Meanwhile, back at their Findlay Street studio, the pros at Tracie Jean Photo Studios create a unique set each holiday season to photograph groups and families. Sets range from reclaimed barn wood with a rustic flair to a clean white and cashmere-gray set with lighted birch trees and a decorated mantel. Along with each year's holiday-set photo options, families are welcome to choose an outdoor holiday and photography experience at Big Tree Plantation in the midst of a beautiful Christmas tree farm.

Healthy Snacking

Jamie Coates-Donohue developed the first Grandola Granola flavor as a healthy snack for her baby daughter Ella. A business was born after Ella's second birthday party—she gave the granola away in favor bags, and friends and family started placing orders. Nut-free and all-natural, Grandola flavors incorporate organic pumpkin and sunflower seeds, Ohio maple syrup, organic dried fruits and organic spices. Certified gluten-free versions are available, too. Sample Ella's Favorite, Autumn's Best and Summer Time in Booth 566. Prices range from $5 for a small bag to $25 for the two-jar gift box.

Hometown Pride

With a mission to grow love, Be Ohio Proud creates simple ways to show admiration for your state and your community. This super-soft, ¾-sleeve T-shirt ($30) is the perfect gift for kids away at college and all the proud Ohioans on your list. Or, choose from many other T-shirt styles, glassware and gift items on display in Booth 514.

Age of Romance

Using the tagline "Jewelry for the Old Soul," Sara Davis designs mixed-media and soldered assemblage jewelry and home accents. Each piece incorporates vintage elements such as European crystals and beads, sacred medals, gems and rhinestones. "I want each piece to reflect a celebration of those things that romance the heart: love, faith, family, friendship and the poetry of life," says Davis, owner of In Small Spectacles. Her work has been featured in Belle Armoire Jewelry and Jewelry Affaire, but you can see it in Booth 258.

Getting Saucy

Let Cucina Pitrelli make your holiday entertaining easier this year. Pitrelli's pasta sauces maintain the family tradition of using the freshest all-natural ingredients—the same tradition guests enjoy at Pitrelli's restaurant in Mason. Stop by Booth 462 to sample fan favorite Basil & Garlic, as well as Spicy Arrabbiata. Each 32-ounce jar (24-ounce for the Arrabbiata) is $5.

Holiday Lights

These frosty-glass Christmas candles by Aunt Sadie's Candles resemble the sugar-coated candles popular in the 1950s. The glass cylinder has a clear crystal outer coating, which sets the image aglow when the pine-scented candle burns. Once the candle has burned away, replace it with a votive candle for continued use of the decorative cylinder. They're available for $20 at Fort Thomas Central, Booths 108 & 110, where you'll also find Charley Harper by Pomegranate, Lucie Rice Prints, Shiraleah fashion accessories and more.

Yes, It's a Mix!

Dessert doesn't get any easier than the Buckaroo Brownies from Mother Mills Old-Fashioned Food Mixes. Simply add oil and eggs, and you've got dark, rich, fudgy chocolate chip brownies. Mother Mills was founded on the idea that everyone deserves home-cooked food. "Our mission is to take the hard work out of made-from-scratch cooking," says Jamie Mills. Visit Booth 380 to sample some of their most popular mixes, including chicken tortilla soup, white chili, flavored beer breads, scrumptious muffins and more.

One for Everyone

Treat your friends, family, clients or employees to a tasty gift that fosters good health. Think.Fresh boxes are filled with high-quality assorted mixed nuts, dried fruits and more, either in decorated mason jars or individual snack packs. Created by LBSnutrition, Think.Fresh offers a healthy alternative to gift-giving and holiday snacking. This box of 15 sampler packs is $40. Check it out in Booth 559.

A Tall Order

The father/daughter team behind Little E Trends has created these growth chart rulers. Handmade by carpenter Tom Knueven and available in a wide range of colors, they're designed with hooks on the back to hang on the wall. "Take them down to measure your child's height, and put it right back on the wall," says owner/designer Emily Knueven. "This way you will not ruin your walls with the typical pencil marks, and if you move you can take it with you!" Most styles are $58; find one that matches your child's room decor in Booth 159C.

The Ultimate Christmas Cookie

White chocolate peppermint cookies from Jenny's Homemade Cookies have Santa's name all over them—that is, if you're willing to share. Jenny's original recipe is made with white chocolate chunks, crushed candy canes and pure butter. ("No shortening in our bakery!" she says.) A dark chocolate variety is available, too, made with Nestle and Ghirardelli dark chocolates. All cookie flavors are made by hand with absolutely no preservatives or artificial flavors. Cookies are priced individually at $3. Put a gift box together at Booth 261B.

Candy Cuties

Ann Emerson started Annie's Homemade Sweets in 2001 with the goal of creating candy that looks as beautiful as it tastes. "I show my love in the beauty of the candy," Emerson says. Bestsellers include the Santa, Snowman and Reindeer Nutter Butters (pictured, $3.95), Turkey Nutter Butters, Snowman Oreos, Peppermint Crunch Bark and more. See the selection in Booth 476.

Sneak Peek ★★

In The Bag

Bow clutch wristlets evoke a soft, vintage style with selections from B Ritze, Booth 313. Available for $78 at the Holiday Market<sup>SM</sup>, each clutch is crafted from 100 percent reclaimed wool, and no two are alike. The product line comes from Baabaazuzu, a company in Michigan that started after the founder's husband shrunk her favorite wool sweaters in the dryer. It's just one of the many creative and original product lines lovingly assembled by Blair Ritze, owner of B Ritze, the Anderson Township clothing boutique.

Imbibe in Style

This smart-looking wine clutch combines fashion and function. Insulated to keep your wine cool, it comes with a handy corkscrew hidden inside a side zipper. Available in a variety of colors and patterns, the wine clutch doubles as a fashion purse—a wardrobe essential for women who enjoy wine! You'll find it for $21.95 at Cork and Grape, Booth 249, which offers a full line of products for the wine enthusiast. Photo courtesy of Primeware, Inc.

Nutty Treat

Pure cane sugar, fresh butter, real vanilla and a commitment to small-batch production make JK Brittleworks "a brittle like no other" as the tagline states. The owners of this family-run business strive to ensure that every box that leaves their kitchen is of the highest quality. You'll find pecan, cashew and pistachio brittle in Booth 464 this year.
